NOTE 1. JESUS DID GOOD EVERYWHERE

Mark 6:1-13 (NLT) -2 The next Sabbath, he began teaching in the synagogue, and many who heard him were amazed. They asked, "Where did he get all this wisdom and the power to perform such miracles?" 3 Then they scoffed, "He's just a carpenter, the son of Mary[a] and the brother of James, Joseph,[b] Judas, and Simon. And his sisters live right here among us." They were deeply offended and refused to believe in him.

NOTE 1. JESUS DID GOOD EVERYWHERE

Jesus did not just teach. The Scripture shows us that He began both to TEACH and DO (Acts 1:1). His ministry was full of experiences of Him going everywhere and doing good (Acts 10:38). He did so many miracles and diverse works that the Bible tells us that the disciples could not report all He did (John 20:30, 21:25).

He brought healing and wholeness to everyone who trusted and called on Him. For example, he healed the woman with the issue of blood, the Lepers, Blind Bartimaeus, etc. It is important to note that he also cast out demons and set them free as he healed them.

He did not just do it. He also taught his disciples how to DO. He empowered them to do too! Luke 10:17-19 reports that the 72 disciples came back with joy because demons submitted to them IN HIS NAME. When they had questions in their training process about why they couldn't cast out a demon, Jesus showed them what was off (Matthew 17:19-20). Jesus showed them how to produce the same result as He did.

But, ironically, this same Mighty Jesus could not do any miracles in a particular place called Nazareth.

NOTE 2. CHRIST IN NAZARETH

Jesus Christ went back to Nazareth, his hometown, his own people. But he couldn't do any miracles among them except to place his hands on a few sick people and heal them. Why?

1. They were too familiar with him

They knew too much of Him that they had difficulty imagining Him as a healer. They called him many things - Carpenter, the Son of Mary, the brother of James, whose sisters lived with them. But they could not see Him as the Christ, the son of the Living God, or healer (Matthew 16:16). They could not accept him as the Christ. No wonder John reported that He went to His own, and his own received him not (John 1: 11-13). What could they not receive Him as? They could not receive him as God, the Living Word.

2. They questioned where he got his wisdom and power from.

They could not comprehend how a man who was possibly born out of wedlock could have such great power and wisdom. The Bible said that the more they spoke and thought about his pedigree, the more they got deeply offended! The Pharisees experienced the same thing, and the only thing they could say was that His power came from Beelzebub (Matthew 12:24). Hence, they took Him for granted, and they missed their moment.

3. They refused to believe Him - they stayed in unbelief!

Unbelief is a significant hindrance to receiving from God. So, Jesus laid hands on only a few of them. As a result of their unbelief, he could not do any creative miracles or works. According to Charles Spurgeon, unbelief has a wide range of expression. "Sometimes, it can make a man doubt whether God really meant what he said or whether it is within the range of possibility of God to do what He has said."

Jesus needs to be trusted for you to enjoy His benefits.

NOTE 3. JESUS CONTINUES TO DO GOOD WORKS TODAY

God still heals. Although the methods are diverse, they all operate through the administration of the Holy Spirit (1 Corinthians 12:4). Be cautious of administrations that do not align with the Spirit of Truth. They are called lying signs and wonders (2 Thessalonians 2:9). Some of the diverse methods recorded in the Scriptures are:

- The Commanding Word (Mark 6:13)
- Laying on of Hands (Mark 16:18)
- Anointing with Oil (James 5:14)
- The Prayer of Faith (James 5:15-16)
- The use of materials - shadows, handkerchiefs, aprons, etc. (Acts 5:15-16, 19:12)

However, there is a posture that allows us to receive from God.

- Repent of your sins (Psalms 103:3; Mark 2:5-12).
 - Forgiveness and healing are twin benefits of our redemptive experience.
- Have faith in the healing, and yoke destroying power of God (Matthew 9:20-22)
 - Accept the fidelity, finality, and immutability of God's Word. God backs up His promises (2 Corinthians 1:20).
 - Your faith in God can grow (Romans 1:17)
 - Trust God - stop trying to explain away God's word by people's experiences.
- Act on your faith. Be thankful for science, do not fight it. It is the wisdom of God given to humanity. Receive it. But even in that, contend with your faith. It is faith in God that heals. (Luke 17: 11-13). Doctors manage, but Jesus HEALS.

That is why we pray, and enforce God's words and promises in our lives. The promises are there, but we must WORK IT out! The prayers in this guide are a good way to start.

HEALING OF THE MIND & THOUGHT PATTERNS

1. God says to me in Isaiah 57:19 “I will heal you’. I declare healing in my mind, and whole being in Jesus’ name. I receive healing from my creator in Jesus name.

4. I rebuke every dream, and visions sponsored by hell that has filled my heart with fear, doubt in God's ability to heal, anxiety, sorrow, and all forms of emotions that are not of peace. In the name of Jesus Christ, I declare that those are not my lot [2 Timothy 1:7].
5. As a man thinketh in his heart so is he [Proverbs 23:7]. Therefore, I bring under the blood of Jesus Christ, every reality, and picture that has been created in my mind about my present, and future that does not line up with the Word of God.
6. Read the reality of God into your mind and do warfare by the Word of God concerning who you are in Christ Jesus.

7. I recreate by my thought patterns in my space going forward things that are true, honest, pure, lovely, and good report. I expect goodness and it comes. I expect health, mercies, favor.... and my expectations are not cut off [Philippians 4:8].
8. God has not given me the spirit of fear. Because fear is not of God, I do not receive fear concerning my marriage, my family, my ministry, future, children, career....
9. God has given me a sound mind. I decree that going forward my mind is sound. I have health in my mind – my mind is not cluttered. It is no longer a dumping ground for self-defeating thoughts. I exercise my mind in the things that make for wholeness in Jesus’ name. [2 Timothy 1:7]
10. Going forward, I guard the gates of my heart with all diligence. Satan is no longer permitted to steal, kill, and destroy in my territories because my gates are guarded in Jesus’ name (Proverbs 4:23).

DELIVERANCE FROM SATANIC OPERATIONS (Obadiah 1:17)

1. Jacob got to a particular place, and as he slept there, he realized that it was an altar, and angels were ascending and descending there (Genesis 28:11-16)
